

Services provided by my satellite radio are valuable for convenience and availability. It's service I pay for for those reasons. There is nothing like them available on terrestrial stations. No stations dedicated 24/7 to just weather (unless you have a radio with a special band...which I don't) or traffic information. Thank you.